

The John F. Kennedy Hyannis Museum preserves and promotes the legacy of President Kennedy, his family, and their deep connection to Cape Cod. The Museum provides a window on the days JFK spent on Cape Cod, being with family and sailing on the ocean to which he was so constantly drawn.

Membership in the Foundation supports the celebration of President Kennedy's legacy through museum exhibits, cultural activities and educational curricula and programs.

For John F. Kennedy and his family, Cape Cod was home. It was here that he enjoyed summertime days of recreation and relaxation. It was here that John F. Kennedy accepted his party's nomination for President of the United States. And it was here that he walked along the Hyannisport beach sometimes until dawn with the weight of the world on his shoulders. The legacy of President Kennedy and his love for Cape Cod is preserved at the John F. Kennedy Hyannis Museum which welcomes tens of thousands of visitors yearly.
